Penn State's Artificial Intelligence and Academic Integrity Resources

The following is a list of resources on the intersections of artificial intelligence and academic integrity currently available at Penn State. You may need to log in and authenticate to access some of these resources. It will be updated as new resources become available. Have something to add? Contact Mary Ann Tobin at matobin@psu.edu.

University-wide Resources

AI, Pedagogy, and Academic Integrity website

aiai.psu.edu

Resources developed by Penn State's AI and Academic Integrity Working Group, including background information on artificial intelligence, sample syllabus statements, FAQs, and Canvas modules for students

AI in the Classroom - Microsoft Teams

teams.microsoft.com/l/team/19%3AicAxGFu-ay3tnEZroWzv5qR1LSTHrWg4V3D1OzYrvC81%40thread.tacv2/conversations?groupId=495272b5-e61e-4438-b8da-4e4aade6ef5c&tenantId=7cf48d45-3ddb-4389-a9c1-c115526eb52e

Space to share ideas and ask questions about how instructors are teaching and talking about artificial intelligence in their classrooms.

AI Horizons Meet Up

tlt.psu.edu/2023/10/06/tlt-relaunching-ai-horizons-penn-states-ai-community-meetup

Monthly, hybrid meetings for faculty to share what they are doing related to artificial intelligence.

DISCIPLINE-SPECIFIC RESOURCES

Information Sciences and Technology Sample Syllabus Statements

Generative AI Tools Use Syllabus Statements

Program in Writing and Rhetoric Approach to Artificial Intelligence

pwr.psu.edu/pwr-ai-approach

Schreyer Institute for Teaching Excellence Resources

Recorded webinars

Academic Integrity and Artificial Intelligence: Writing New Stories (2023)

Exams in the Age of AI (2023)

Prevent (many) Academic Integrity Violations (2022)